Kia ora Network Waitangi, Welcome to the latest edition of SNIPPETS; Treaty news from around the network.
Issue 2020, No. 4

In this resource, we share information about current conversations and issues; local, national and sometimes international.

Please note, NWO is not aligned with any political party.

NEW NWO RESOURCES

We have put together two new resources:

Who are Tangata Tiriti?

and

Recent changes in the social context

As always, we would love to receive any feedback about these.

Te Tiriti based Futures:

The rich and diverse sessions held during the recent online 'Anti-racism 2020' conference (21-30 March) are making their way online: youtube.com/c/

TeTiritiBasedFutures202

A team of volunteers is doing a quick tidy-up before uploading.

There are twelve recordings available, with another 20 on the way.

Not all recordings will be uploaded as they have undertaken to honour the intellectual property of presenters.

Of special note is a korero with Moana Jackson, recorded on 21 March.

The decolonisation posters which were created as part of this conference are available on the NWO website.

COVID-19: Human Rights and Duties to the Community

A message from the Human Rights Commissioner, Paul Hunt:

From the Universal Declaration of Human Rights:

“Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of their personality is possible.”

Commissioner Hunt comments:

It is time to discuss our human rights duties to the community. These duties chime with Te Tiriti and the Māori world view, such as Kaitiakitanga. The discussion is long overdue.

The Citizen's Handbook

A ten-part comedy series and civics class for New Zealanders covering five topics: history, politics, law, economics, and international relations.

"Using thorough research and sharp comedy, The Citizen's Handbook empowers its audience with the knowledge of how this country came to be, how it currently works, and how we can face the challenges that lie ahead.

The Citizen's Handbook puts the focus onto the actions of people, and by highlighting the power of human action in creating the present, we're demonstrating that your actions can have a powerful impact on the future.

It's also really funny".

Protect the voices we are losing during times of crisis

by Margaret Kawharu

(Ngāti Whātua/Mahurehure Senior Māori Advisor at Massey University)

As we focus on protecting everyone's health and well-being from this unprecedented global virus, we are made acutely aware of life and death and the ways in which we manage the transition from one to the other.

...consider the voices we are losing, the stories that make up our collective memory and how we might "protect, record and cherish them, while we still have a chance."

Tuku Aroha Quilt

Last month, Hagley College unveiled the Tuku Aroha Quilt in commemoration of March 15th 2019. Last year was the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, but it will live in our memory for the outpouring of love and compassion, as well as bringing together of people from diverse backgrounds into one community.
